SHERMAN & HYDE'S COLUMN.

Just before the Declaration of Independence, a Yankee peddler started to New York to sell a lot of bowls and dishes he had made of maple. Jonathan traveled over the city, asking everybody to buy his wares, but no one was disposed to purchase.

Jonathan then called on a British fleet was then lying in the harbor of New York, and Jonathan struck upon a plan of selling. He got a uniform, by hook or crook, (for history doesn't tell where he got it) and strutting upon a town one morning, asked a merchant if he had any wooden ware for sale. The merchant asked him what he wanted.

The merchant replied that he had none on hand, but there was some in town, and if he would send in the afternoon, he would supply him with pleasure.

"Very good," said the naval officer,

"I will call."

Jonathan now cut for home by the shortest route, and he had scarcely dressed his borrowed plume before down came the merchant, who, seeing that Jonathan had sold none of his wares, offered to take the whole if he would deduct 15 per cent. But Jonathan said he would not do that. He would not take a cent home before he had taken a cent less than his first price.

The merchant finally paid him his price down in gold for the wooden ware, which lay on the shelves for many a long day thereafter; and Jonathan trotted home in high glee at the success of his maneuver, while the merchant curled his British officer's nose.

Jonathan's success was due to the fact that he had a good deal of money on hand, and he had scarcely dressed his borrowed plume before down came the merchant, who,

THE BOSTONIANS OF 18.

The community as a whole was distinguished by a very severe tone of morality, in which the light and free conduct of a man of wit or pleasure seemed utterly at variance with the formal dignity and propriety expected from those in office. External were all important, neglect of appropriate costume a great levity. Gov. Shirley, indeed, at the hands of one Thomas

Tham, Esq., Surveyor of Customs and Chief of the Coast, 1780, received severe censure for permitting himself to appear sitting in a chair without a sword, in plain short frock, unfrilled coat, a scratch wig and a little ruffian in the costume of a people influenced national character, there seems much reason to connect the polite gravity of our Revolutionary fathers with the formality of their dress. One would expect a certain gravity and dignity, as well as graceful courtesy from a gentleman in powdered hair and a long quene, plaited white stock, shirt ruffled at the bosom, and fastened at the wrists with gold sleeve-buttons, peach-bloom coat, standing well off at the skirts, stiffened with buckram; figured silk

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

PARANOID.—Robert Williamson, of Sacramento, B. A. Hendrickson, of San Francisco, and R. M. Folger, of the Chronicle, arrived here this morning on an "extra" driven by Hank Monk, of Greeley fame. Messrs. Williamson and Hendrickson came to attend the meeting of the Mountain Company, of which they are large stockholders, on Monday next.

Mr. Ferguson, of Grass Valley, arrived here last night on the regular stage, to take charge of the I. X. L. mine as Foreman. He was accompanied by several miners for that mine.

DECEASED.—Joseph Fenly, of the Arcade Hotel, Markleeville, an old resident of this county, died at Stockton on Thursday of last week, after an illness of several weeks, of liver complaint. Mr. Fenly was removed from Markleeville to Stockton for medical attendance about two weeks previous to his death, but disease had taken too firm a hold to be shaken off. He leaves a wife and several daughters to mourn his loss, as well as a large circle of friends who sympathize with the widow and fatherless in their great loss. The deceased was a native of Kentucky and aged about 60 years.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.—The Board of Supervisors met on Monday last as Board of Equalization, and raised some assessments, and adjourned till the 24th, when those whose assessments have been raised must appear and show cause why their assessments should not stand as raised by the Board.

INSPECTING IT.—Messrs. Williamson, Hendrickson, Folger, Rice and others are engaged this afternoon in inspecting the tunnel and works of the Mountain Mine, work upon which will shortly be resumed, after a resting spell of about eight years.

MOUNTAIN COMPANY.—The stockholders of this Company will hold a meeting on Monday evening, the 17th inst., to $100,000, to 100,000 shares, of $100 each, and to remove the office from Silver Mountain to San Francisco, and also to elect Directors.

WILL START UP.—Work on the I. X. L. mine, near this town, will be resumed on Monday next, after a rest of about two years. The new foreman, Mr. Ferguson, arrived last evening from Grass Valley.

FULL LOADS.—The tide of travel has at last turned toward Alpine, the stage coming in well loaded. Yesterday an "extra" was sent from Carson with passengers for Silver Mountain, arriving here at 11 o'clock this morning.

BONDED.—We learn that the Rippon mine, now called the Occident, has been bonded in an English Company who propose purchasing it within three months for $50,000.

NEW PUMP.—This week a powerful pump was sent up the I. X. L. mine, work upon which will be resumed next week.

BRICK.—Brick making for the new furnace at the Exchequer Mill has commenced.

HAULING ORE.—Ore is being hauled from the Exchequer mine to the mill.

Dom Pedro, the Empress and members of the suite, after a stay of three months, sailed for Europe on Tuesday in the steamer Russia. Salutes were given as the steamer passed down the bay of New York.

Langley, the San Francisco directory man, has filed a petition of voluntary bankruptcy.

The President has re-appointed Thor. B. Shannon to be Collector of the Port of San Francisco.

Internal Revenue Commissioner Pratt has resigned.

The small pox has been introduced to Virginia City by San Francisco.

The Senate has confirmed James M. Tyner as Postmaster General.

A HEALTH PROMOTING STIMULANT.
Physicians, who certainly ought to be the best judges of such matters, declare that whole-some stimulation is not only desirable, but essential in many instances. When the temporary good effect of a sound stimulant is confirmed and rendered permanent, as in the case of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by the action of tonic and alterative principles combined with it, it becomes infinitely more efficacious as a renovator of physical energy and a corrector of those conditions of the body which invite disease. The Bitters have received the emphatic sanction of medical men who have observed the effect of that popular stimulant cordial as a remedy for weakness, nervousness, dyspepsia, constipation, inactivity of the liver, malinvolence, fever, and many other disorders. Its use is sound and safe, and its tonic properties of no mean order.

FROM WOODFORDS.

Woodford's, July 14, 1870.

It has been reported that Rural has "passed in his checks," but I am happy to inform those who would have it so that it is all a mistake. We have not given any items for some time, owing to the fact that our local telegraph got somewhat impaired by the late thunder storm, and our local news have been bottled up; but the batteries are beginning to work again and the prospects at present are that there will be no lack of dispatches nor operators to send them. Since we have been threatened with a suit for slander, we have been a little tender-footed about scoring too close to the line; but let me here remark that if people do not wish to be talked about, they must not give any lay-outs; and furthermore, if the shoe fits it is well enough to wear it. Since my last writing our weather has been a mixture of hot, cold, wet and dry. On the night of the 7th we had a good, soaking rain, and on the 8th a severe freeze and hard frost, and, strange to say, the vegetation up this way was very little damaged. I am informed that down in the valley they did not fare so well. Haying has commenced in Carson Valley. The body of young Smith, who was drowned in the West Carson, at last accounts had not been found. Free halls and parties have been the order of the day, (or rather the night) a few miles below here. The boys say they would prefer to go to a ball where they charge a fellow for his dancing, as they think it less expensive. One fellow, when he came out, found his dulcinea engaged for the free dance; made up his mind to ride in the same wagon; he rode—and yek he walked. We have all had our say at the great Centennial Fourth of July. Our town has regained its original quiet and our once peaceful citizens have returned to their usual avocations. We have hung up our revolvers, bowie knives and double-barreled shot-guns and ceased to appear in warlike array. The big shouldered woodchopper has gone back to the woods to mingle with the roaring pine squirrel and the ferocious chipmunk and to bed under the sweet scented sagebrush with the dear little antie-mire. Would he be considered gone where the woodbine twined? Almost everybody went abroad to celebrate the Fourth and left scarcely enough in our burgh for a corpora's guard; but if we are to judge from appearances, those who stayed at home were the happiest. We have seen a number who came home as mad as a rail and with faces as long as a church steeple. We presume everything did not go off according to Hovle, and as for ourself, we are glad we stayed at home and sang "Praise God from whom all blessings flow, etc." Hurrah for Hayes and Wheeler!

The People of the State of California, send greeting to Sol. Simpson and O. W. Ward, Defendants.
You are hereby required and directed to appear before me, at my office in Second Township, in the County of Alpine, in an action, brought against you by the above named Plaintiff, and to answer the complaint in said action, at 11 o'clock, on the 17th day of August, A. D. 1870.
The said action is brought to recover the sum of One Hundred and Sixty Dollars, being a balance due on two accepted notes given by one Sam Nixon, accepted for payment by you, amounting to $100 and $60, and $100 in U. S. gold coin, the said notes now being the property of the Plaintiff, James Davidson, who claims to be the legal holder and that if you fail to appear and answer a said complaint, as above required, said Plaintiff will seek judgment against you for the sum of One Hundred and Sixty Dollars and $100 Dollars and costs, together with costs of suit.
Given under my hand this First day of June, A. D. 1870.
R. H. FORD, Justice of the Peace of said Township.
Thos. J. O'Conor, Plaintiff's Atty.

PROBATE NOTICE.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF ALPINE COUNTY, State of California, The Estate of L. A. NORTON, deceased.
I, L. M. Buel, Clerk of the Probate Court of Alpine County, California, do hereby certify that the following is a true and correct copy of an Order duly made and entered on the records of said Probate Court, June 18th, 1870.
[28] this 18th June, A. D. 1870.

MEDICAL.

TASTELESS MEDICINES.

A prominent New York physician lately complained to DUNDAS DICK & CO. about their SANDALWOOD OIL CAPSULES, stating that sometimes they caused nausea, but that on being informed that several imitations were sold, he informed them that his patients had not been taking DUNDAS DICK & CO.'S. What happened to this physician may have happened to others, and DUNDAS DICK & CO. take this method of protecting physicians, druggists and perfumers in the United States combined, and this the same reason why the pure oil is sold cheaper in their Capsules than in any other form.
DUNDAS DICK & CO.'S SOFT CAPSULES select the purest, long considered by eminent physicians, of how to avoid nausea and distaste, experienced in swallowing, which are good effects of many valuable remedies. Soft Capsules are put up in tin and neat boxes, thirty in each box, and are the only Capsules prescribed by physicians.
TASTELESS MEDICINES.—Castor Oil taken easily and safely in DUNDAS DICK & CO.'S SOFT CAPSULES. NO TASTE. NO PAIN. These were the only Capsules admitted to the last Paris Exposition.
Send for Circular to 25 Wooster Street, N. Y.

MANHOOD,

REVISED AND CORRECTED BY THE AUTHOR,
E. DE F. CURTIS, M. D., &c., &c.

A Medical Essay on the cause and cure of premature decline in man, showing how health is lost, and how regained. It gives a clear synopsis of the impediments to marriage, the treatment of nervous and physical debility, exhausted vitality, and all other diseases appertaining thereto; the results of twenty years successful practice.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

CURTIS ON "MANHOOD." "There is no member of society by whom this book will not be found useful, whether he be parent, preceptor or physician."—London Times.

CURTIS ON "MANHOOD." "This book should be read by the young for instruction, and by the afflicted for relief; it will injure no one."—Medical Times and Gazette.

THE AGE.

ENTIRELY NEW!
THE HOME SEWING MACHINE

This Machine combines improvements concentrated from all the older machines: It uses a Shuttle and Straight Needle, and makes the Lock Stitch.

It is the best, because it is so perfectly simple that a child can understand and run it, and less liable to get out of order.

IT IS THE LIGHTEST RUNNING MA-CHINE IN THE WORLD.

It sets flush with the table, and in all its appointments it is hand-made.

PRICE ranges from $20 to $150.

MEDICAL.

YOUNG MEN

Who may be suffering from the effect of youthful follies or indiscretions, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity.
DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of neuralgia, weakness, or private disease of any kind or character, which he undertakes and fails to cure. He would, therefore, say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice, that if you are reading on dangerous ground when you longer desire in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may be in the first stage of the disease, or you may be in the last. If you are in the last, and are suffering, remember some of all of its ill effects, remember that if you persist in procrastination, the time must come when the most skillful physician can render no assistance when the door of hope will be closed against you; when no angel of mercy can bring you relief, in no case has the Doctor failed of success.
Then let not despair work upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case becomes medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave. Full course of treatment $25 00. Send money by Post office Order or Express with full description of case. C. P. or Address.
